ACT I

In Rockville Music School, on Hola Hope's graduation day.

Georgia Grant: Remember Hola: every song must come from the heart.

Georgia Grant: Every song must go to the heart.

Georgia Grant: The song must be yours.

Georgia Grant:...and don't come back to Rockville.

ACT II

Hola Hope goes to New York and meets Sandy Sokolov.

Sandy Sokolov: Mr. Pimp has only one rule: Keep it coming.

Sandy Sokolov: Over here is where The Crew writes the songs.

Sandy Sokolov: Over here is where the Crew shoots the songs.

Sandy Sokolov: Over there is where DJ White plays the songs.

DJ Black: Sorry kiddo. If it's not the Crew playing, we're not buying.

ACT III

Hola Hope goes to Hollywood and meets Mindy Morgenstein.

Mindy Morgenstein: Mr. Hustler has only one rule: Closer, then further away again.

Mindy Morgenstein: Here is where the Bunch produce songs.

DJ Black: We have an exclusive arrangement with The Bunch.

ACT IV

Hola Hope goes to New Orleans and meets with Dalida Dostorgy.

Dalida Dostorgy: Mr. Flagstaff has only one rule: Make it work.

Dalida Dostorgy: Over here is where the Crowd makes songs.

DJ Grey: The market is going with the Crowd these days.

ACT V

Hola Hope returns to Rockville. The school has shut down, and it's library is a store run by a guy.

Record Store Guy: Why so blue? Here, let me play a few records for you.

Hola Hope: Do you still have a record of the song Georgia sang on our graduation day?

Record Store Guy: The record is in the basement, I'll take you there.

ACT VI

In the Record Store basement

Hola Hope: Here's an old record of Jack Pimp.

Hola Hope: And here's an old record of Joe Hustler.

Hola Hope: And here's an old record of John Flagstaff.

Hola Hope: And it's the same guy!

ACT VII

Unknown location. Assembled are Georgia Grant, Sandy Sokolov, Mindy Morgenstein, and Dalida Dostorgy.

Georgia Grant: We are here because the songs are dead.
