

SHE REMEMBER SHE

It may face terror

Not to the worker street gang

But to the mirror

It found this after a
Break in continuity
Of broken feats

The peanut could pull
And later claim to be clear
Of any wrong doing

The peanut could swallow
And point a tool of filth flab
Again and again

The peanus wanted

To invite a mask and can

For a bar of gold

A taste

Sweet water

Forgotten

Trapped in a loop

Deceit hanging up laundry

And a driver look

Deciet of fellow

And pairs and pairs of colors

Smiling. Did they know?

Deceit. Take your shot

Do you know with whom you play?

Or what if not fire

And deceit again

You will be running circles

Soon enough. Tarry not

A taste

Sweet water

Remember?

Along a green path

Throw away the red and flesh

Sit on a ledge. Think

Look yonder hither

Trace your steps back again and

Perhaps the will bright

Find your way in time
To a garden odd cublime
Sweat dries easily

When you move they move

Fie upon their heads and fie

Hypocrisy die

Come now the game fun

I go this way then thay way

Then back again. Ha!

Cross the bridge confuse
And cross it again with eyes
Lies have no feet. Ha!

Bloated oaf sitting

Smoking like nothing happened

Staring at livid screens

Another saunters

As if unconcerned

It will swerve now this

Who is laughing now?

Neither of us it seems. No?

Come. Let us see this

Hold the foot tender

Open the compass wide quick

Follow if you dare

Look into eyes mine

Kiss my neck with your hand here

Never mind the hall

A bus

One way goes

Other

Down the green channel

A friend abandons with truth

Oddly out of place

Down the green channel

Back to find the congregate

Station crown delight

Pants

And flowers

Are these yours?

A break in the light

Shatters the beacon afar

Sign not yet bring here

The way is blocked

The beaters line up growling

Not so fun now huh

A bus

One way goes

Stop before

Confuse the leper

Boy on pier will drown tonight

Woman with baby

Cool guard drink water

Splash and find two cans of coke

Business as usual

Today is the fourth

Or sixth. Who is running now?

She will bring me home.
