Dear Mr. Gopalan,

1 Thank you for your letter dated 26 October 2021, the Law Society of Singapore reference LS/4/C168(MMMH)M88/21-117/KG.jl.al.

Confirmation of lawyers complained against

2 I believe the lawyers I am complaining against are indeed Timothy Ang Wei Kiat (Hong Weijie) and Zhu Ming-Ren Wilson, both lawyers currently practicing in Rajah & Tann Singapore LLP. I confirm.

Nominal and symbolic request for monetary compensation

3 I understand that my present complaint may not result in monetary compensation, and that my complaint will be sent to Ang and Zhu. I am, needless to say, extremely disappointed at the gross breach of Rules of Court, deceit, tyrannical use of power, unnecessary rudeness, in addition to misrepresentation by Ang and Zhu, Officers of the Supreme Court of the Republic of Singapore, at an allegedly reputable practice. I am cognizant of any decency and shame Ang and Zhu may not fall prey to. My request for monetary compensation is there should, for example, another Officer of the Supreme Court at the allegedly reputable practice perceive a duty or sense of justice.

4 It will be noticed from supporting documents I attached to my letter of complaint that: (i) I offered to meet with Ang and Zhu before HC/S 413/2021 and received rude and threatening responses; and (ii) I explicitly stated my position of trust towards Ang and Zhu in the matter of HC/S 413/2021 even after the aforementioned rude and fictional ultimatums from Ang and Zhu. To say that my trust was misplaced is such an understatement as to be meaningless. My request for monetary compensation is nominal and clearly so in relation to damages prayed for in the matter of HC/S 413/2021, as well as symbolic in that it is a reiteration of my belief in an ethical law society and system in Singapore.

Faithfully Yours,
