Dear Ms. Samsuri,

Regarding your email dated Thursday 22 July 2021 and my previous reply to the same.

2. For your kind reference, the Transaction Ref No. for the payment of $140/- via PayNow/PayLah at 90014980 (DeL) is: 2021072216592706.

3. I am very much looking forward to transfer via email to myself the Notes of Evidence dated 14 July 2021 heard before AR Kenneth Wang.

4. My request dated 16 July filed in the Supreme Court Service Bureau was for Grounds of Decision. Perhaps 'Notes of Evidence' is a term used with reference for this application form provided by the Electronic Filing Service? Nevertheless, I look forward to receiving the Notes of Evidence dated 14 July 2021 heard before AR Kenneth Wang, with or without Grounds of Decision and/or Certified Transcripts. I affirm that I will not request a refund should the content of the document transferred via email to myself not include Grounds of Decision.

5. The reason to accept the Notes of Evidence dated 14 July 2021 heard before AR Kenneth Wang with or without Grounds of Decision is that my request is submitted to help me appeal: I am therefore in need of and grateful for Notes of Evidence with or without Grounds of Decision.

6. Solicitors for the Defendant, Mr. Timothy Ang and Mr. Wilson Zhu, have not been cc-ed in this email for the following reasons:

(a) This message contains payment transaction details which I am unable to share with these solicitors for reasons mentioned in the email and letter I sent to the Supreme Court Judiciary and Registry on Thursday 22 July 2021 at 9:42 AM.

(b) These solicitors may access the Notes of Evidence dated 14 July 2021 heard before AR Kenneth Wang at will by submitting a request on eLit. In other words, there is no prejudice to the Defendant.

(c) I filed a Notice to Appeal at the Supreme Court Service Bureau today, Thursday 22 July, Court fees paid in transaction at 12:04 PM. Service on to these solicitors upon acceptance was requested and paid for. Since the status of this application, whether accepted or rejected, is presently unknown, and since it is necessary to include my reason for accepting Notes of Evidence dated 14 July 2021 heard before AR Kenneth Wang with or without Grounds of decision, a cc of the present message to these solicitors acting on behalf of the Defendant is prejudice to the Plaintiff (myself).

7. I express my sincere gratitude for your time and attention, and reiterate my eagerness to receive Notes of Evidence dated 14 July 2021 heard before AR Kenneth Wang.

Kind regards,
Mohamed Helmy
